Dear Mr. Villasana,

The American Civil Liberties Union appreciates Forever Homes for Foster Kids' work in El Salvador, and I write to acknowledge your efforts in a recent search for a Salvadoran family that was separated at the U.S.-Mexico border during the Trump Administration.

In this case, previous efforts to find the separated father El Salvador had been unsuccessful and it was not clear that the father was even in that country. Forever Homes received our referral and was able to find the father—just one of many successful searches your organization has completed.

The services of Forever Homes have proved invaluable to reunification efforts. We thank Forever Homes for its diligence, expertise and consistent commitment to locate parents in El Salvador and other countries throughout Latin America.

Sincerely,
